TOURISM AND INDIGENEITY IN THE ARCTIC
Edited by Arvid Viken (UiT The Arctic University of Norway) and Dieter K. Müller (Umeå University)

This refreshing book offers a highly valuable contribution to the existing literature on indigenous tourism with specific focus on the Circumpolar North. Tourism and Indigeneity in the Arctic is a timely and important collection and a must-read for anyone interested in understanding the relationships and encounters between tourism and indigenous people.

Jarkko Saarinen, University of Oulu, Finland

Description
This is the first book to exclusively address tourism and indigenous peoples in the circumpolar North. It examines how tourism in indigenous communities is influenced by academic and political discourses and how communities are influenced by tourism. The volume seeks to challenge stereotypical understandings of indigenousness and indigeneity.
