Register Open Access in Pure

THE VBN-TEAM RECOMMENDS

Open Access (OA) is all about free access to research publications. The advantage of Open Access is that you can increase the impact of your research. It reaches a broader audience and the possibilities for citations increase.

Many funders demand that funded publications are made Open Access.

THE GOLDEN ROUTE TO OPEN ACCESS

Golden Open Access means publishing in journals where the final version of the articles are publicly available. There is usually a fee to pay to publish an article in a Golden Open Access journal. This fee is referred to as the Article Processing Charge (APC). You can upload the final published version directly to Pure, the digital archive of Aalborg University.

THE GREEN ROUTE TO OPEN ACCESS

Green Open Access is also called parallel publishing or self-archiving. Here you have the publisher's permission to archive a copy of your work (normally the accepted, peer reviewed version of the article) in a digital archive. Pure is the archive of Aalborg University. This type of Open Access is often embargoed in a period ranging from 6 to 24 months.
