

Group of experts for technical advice on the School Fruit Scheme - what can we bring to the scheme?

Bent Egberg Mikkelsen, Aalborg University

Member States Meeting jointly with the Advisory Group on "Fruit and Vegetables" and the School Fruit Scheme Experts Group

Wednesday 28 March 2012. 9.30 to 18 - Salle AB-0A

Centre Albert Borschette 36, Rue Froissart 1049 Bruxelles

Abstract: The School Fruit Scheme Experts Group has had the opportunity to meet at a number of occasions and are looking forward to study in detail the findings and experiences so far and to give its constructive advice on the future of the scheme. The group is interdisciplinary in terms of scientific background and represent different type of expertise in relation to food and health of young people at school. The group will focus in particular on the differences and similarities in the lay out of the scheme in the different countries and will look in depth at both evaluation and implementation. The mandate of the group is for 3 years and the workplan for 2012 involves looking in detail at best practices of evaluation based on the input from the national reports. The group sees its mission as coming up with instruments, tools and guidelines for both implementation and evaluation.

Summary

- The School Fruit Scheme Experts Group has had the opportunity to meet at a number of occasions and are looking forward to study in detail the findings and experiences so far and to give its constructive advice on the future of the scheme. The group is interdisciplinary in terms of scientific background and represent different type of expertise in relation to food and health of young people at school. The group will focus in particular on the differences and similarities in the lay out of the scheme in the different countries and will look in depth at both evaluation and implementation. The mandate of the group is for 3 years and the workplan for 2012 involves looking in detail at best practices of evaluation based on the input from the national reports. The group sees its mission as coming up with instruments, tools and guidelines for both implementation and evaluation.

Who are we

- Mario Mazzocchi, IT
- Bent Egberg
Mikkelsen, DK (chair)
- Loes Neven, BE
- Martine Padilla, FR
- Saida Barnat, FR
- Margherita Caroli, IT
(co chair)
- Bela Franchini, PT
- Victoria Anna Kovacs,
HU
- Athena Linos, GR
- Fergus Lowe, UK (co chair)

Our mission

