FIRE-MUSIC - NOTES AND PERFORMANCE HISTORY

NOTE ON THE WORK

Fire is passionate without being strained; it's unified without repeating itself; it's clean without being ascetic; it develops itself without being fixed to a scheme; it's fast and slow, leaping and calm at the same time...
(1977)

Fire-Musik (as well as Postcard-Musik, see separate entry) are free, heterophonic canons. The inspiration was the repeated aleatory structures in compositions by Penderecki - I wondered why they were always fast and mechanical. With slower ones, one could make improvised variations and yet have unity of structure.
