

Programme

CONCEPTA: International Research School in Conceptual History

Venue: AU, Building 1323, Room 122;

Sunday 11 August

18:00: Get together

Venue: The Café, Studenterhuset, Building 1422, Ndr. Ringgade 3

Monday August 12

10:00 Opening Remarks by Vice-Dean Jan Ifversen, Faculty of Arts, Aarhus University

10:15-12:00 Professor Martin Burke, The Graduate Center, The City University of New York

The History of Concepts Movement Today

12:00-13:00 Lunch Break

13:00-15:00 Vice-Dean Jan Ifversen

Introduction to Conceptual History I: Between hermeneutics, linguistics and history

Tuesday August 13

10:00-12:00 Assistant Professor Niklas Olsen, SAXO Institute, University of Copenhagen

An Introduction to the Works of Reinhart Koselleck

12:00-13:00 Lunch Break

13:00-15:00 Professor Martin Burke

The History of Concepts and Intellectual History

15:00-15:30 Break

15:30-17:00 Vice-Dean Jan Ifversen

Introduction to Conceptual History II: Concepts in Time

Wednesday 14 August

10:00-12:00 Professor Martin Burke

The History of Concepts and the Cambridge School

12:00-13:00 Lunch Break

13:00-15:00 Assistant Professor Niklas Olsen

Case study: What is Liberalism? Definitions, Approaches, Narratives

15:00-15:30 Break

15:30-17:00 Vice-Dean Jan Ifversen
New challenges to Conceptual History

Thursday 15 August

10:00-12:00 Vice-Dean Jan Ifversen
Good Neighbors: Historical Semantics and Discourse Analysis

12:00-13:00 Lunch Break

13:00-14:00 Student presentations of work in progress I (commented by Jan Ifversen);

- Anton Jansson: "Religion and political ideologies of Vormärz Germany: A brief introduction to my PhD Project and its relation to conceptual history"
- Sisay Megersa Dirirsa: "What is a nation? Methodological Dilemmas: A discussion paper"

14:00-15:30 Student presentations of work in progress II (commented by Jeppe Nevers)

- Louise Zbiranski: "The citizen in arms - How to study a still controversial concept?"
- Eleá de la Porte: "Enlightenment as narrative. Contemporary perspectives on the Enlightenment in the Dutch Republic around 1800"
- Pramod Jayaprakash: "Retranslation - plurality of translation in literary and scientific discourses"

Friday 16 August

10:00-12:00 Associate Professor Jeppe Nevers, Department of History, University of Southern Denmark
Conceptual History and the Study of Politics

12:00-13:00 Lunch Break

13:00-15:00 Associate Professor Christoffer Kølvraa, Department of Culture and Society, Aarhus University

Concepts, ideologies and affect

15:00-15:30 Break

15:30-17:00 Associate Professor Bertel Nygaard, Department of Culture and Society, Aarhus University

Case Study: the Concept of Revolution

Monday 19 August

10:00-12:00 Postdoc Jani Marjanen, Center for Nordic Studies, Helsinki University
Undermining Methodological Nationalism: Concepts in Transnational History

12:00-13:00 Lunch Break

13:00-14:00 Student presentations of work in progress III (commented by Jani Marjanen)

- Roxana Eugenia Breazu: "Romanian Economic Thought 1920s to 1940s"
- Rubén González Cuerva: "Faction: The Leading Concept in Early Modern Court Politics?"
- Jimmi Østergaard Nielsen: "The Emergence of the Concept of "Decolonisation" in British Parliamentary Debate"

14:00-14:30 Break

14:30-16:30 Assistant Professor Christian Olaf Christiansen, Department of Culture and Society, Aarhus University

Case Study: the Concept of Management

Tuesday 20 August

10:00-12:00 Professor Michael Freeden, University of Oxford, Mansfield College Oxford and University of Nottingham

Concepts in Ideologies

12:00-13:00 Lunch Break

13:00-15:00 Professor Martin Burke

Histories of Concepts and Histories of Print Culture

15:00-15:30 Break

15:30-17:00 Emeritus Senior Research Fellow Hans Erich Bödeker, The Max Planck Institute for History, Göttingen

Title to be confirmed

Wednesday 21 August

10:00-12:00 Emeritus Senior Research Fellow Hans Erich Bödeker

Concepts and Metaphors

12:00-13:00 Lunch Break

13:00-15:00 Associate Professor Poul Duedahl, Department of Culture and Global Studies, Aalborg University

Concepts in/on Global History

15:00-15:30 Break

15:30-17:00 Professor Helge Jordheim, Department of Cultural History, Medieval Studies and Museology, University of Oslo

Temporalities and Asynchronicities in Conceptual History

Thursday 22 August

10:00-12:00 Senior Researcher Margrit Pernau, Max Planck Institute for Human Development, Berlin
Taking Conceptual History beyond National and Linguistic Borders

12:00-13:00 Lunch Break

13:00-14:00 Student presentations of work in progress IV (commented by Martin Burke)

- Francesca Antonini: "The Concepts of Bonapartism and Caesarism from Marx to Gramsci"
- Chun Xu: "From Heavenly Misfortune to Man-made Disaster: Floods, Droughts and the Chinese Empire (1400-1600)"
- Fanny Fröhlich: "Economic Thinking and Social Conceptions in West Africa since the 1930s"

14:00-14:30 Break

14:30-16:30 Senior Researcher Margrit Pernau

Case Study: Concepts of Emotions

Friday 23 August

10:00-12:00 Professor João Feres Júnior, The Institute of Social and Political Sciences, Rio de Janeiro State University

Applying Digital Resources to Research in Conceptual History

12:00-13:00 Lunch Break

13:00-15:00 Professor João Feres Júnior

The History of Asymmetrical Counter concepts: the Case of Latin America

15:00-15:30 Break

15:30-17:00 Associate Professor Hagen Schulz-Forberg, Department of Culture and Society, Aarhus University

Concepts in Transnational and Multi-lingual Settings: Euro-Asian Translations and Appropriations of the Social and the Economic