

Intelligent Accountability Symposium

PROGRAM

12-14 December 2017

University of Bergen

Tuesday 12 December 2017

1230	Coffee/tea/light lunch
1300	Welcome Dean Bente Wold
1315	Overview of the project – Why talking about intelligent school accountability in SLATE? Astrid Tolo & Fay Wheldon
1415	Catch and release? Attributing and assuming accountability through news press coverage of Norwegian welfare issues Simon Neby
1500	Coffee/Tea
1515	Keynote: How do accountability systems operate and what is needed to make them 'intelligent'? Gordon Stobart
1600	Questions and discussions
1630	Closing

Wednesday 13 December 2017

0915	School accountability. Historical perspectives and trajectories Christian Ydesen
1000	Conditions for effective inspections of educational networks: Findings from four comparative case studies Melanie Ehren
1045	Coffee/Tea
1100	Experiences from school assessment in Scotland Louise Hayward
1200	Lunch at Christies Café
1315	Questioning accountability systems from a social justice perspective: Criticism and proposals Maria Teresa Florez Petour & Tamara Rozas
1400	Are school leaders competent to assess and follow up assessment of teachers? Sølvi Lillejord
1445	Coffee/Tea
1515	Big data and Learning analytics in education Barbara Wasson
1600	Closing
1830	Aperitif & Dinner – Scandic Ørnen

Thursday 14 December

0930	Country cases - Round table session (10 min presentation on your own countries) Chile - Tamara Rosas & Maria Teresa Florez , Denmark - Christian Ydesen , Norway - Sølvi Lillejord, Astrid Tolo & Helene Eide , England - Jo-Anne Baird & Melaine Ehren , Scotland – Louise Hayward & Graham Donaldson Session will be led by Maria Teresa Florez
1130	Summing up from Rapporteur Gordon Stobart
1200	Way forward: Publication on Intelligent accountability Jo-Anne Baird
1245	Lunch
