Cassius Dio: Greek Intellectual and Roman Politician

Edited by Carsten Hjort Lange, Aalborg University and Jesper Majbom Madsen, University of Southern Denmark

Winner of the 2017 Choice Outstanding Academic Title Award

Cassius Dio: Greek Intellectual and Roman Politician, a collection of essays on this historian, is the first to appear in the new Brill series Historiography of Rome and Its Empire. The volume brings together case studies that highlight various aspects of Dio's Roman History, focusing on previously ignored or misunderstood aspects of his narrative. The main purpose of the volume is to pursue a combined historiographic, literary and rhetorical analysis of Dio's work and of its political and intellectual agendas. Dio's work is often used as a handy resource, with scholars looking at isolated sections of his annalistic structure. Contrary to this approach, the volume puts emphasis on Cassius Dio and his Roman History in its historiographical setting, thus allowing us to link and understand the different parts of his work.

READERSHIP:

All interested in Roman history and Roman / Ancient historiography, especially Cassius Dio and his Roman History, and a combined historiographic, literary and rhetorical analysis of his work and of its political and intellectual agendas
