

Dear students,

AALBORG UNIVERSITY AND THE TECHNOANTHROPOLOGY
RESEARCH AND PARTICIPATION GROUP
INVITE YOU TO A PUBLIC LECTURE AND WORKSHOP
WITH

PROF. PETER-PAUL VERBEEK

The event will take place on 20 April 2018 from 09:00 to 16:00 at AAU CPH, Building FKJ 12, Seminar Room 0.06. Link to map: <https://bit.ly/2JyIBKJ>. If you want to travel from Aalborg to Copenhagen, please leave your name in this Doodle document, so the Study Board can have an idea what kind of bus needs to be rented.

Prof. Verbeek will give a lecture on the politics of technology, focusing on how both technology and politics influence individuals and societies. Prof. Verbeek will outline major socio-technical problems we could and should be addressing. After the lecture, all participants are invited to an exercise, where they will propose solutions to the problems identified by prof. Verbeek.

Students who wish to benefit from a post-phenomenological perspective on their current or future projects should stay for the open feedback session with prof. Verbeek. Use this chance to discuss your specific ideas with one of the world's foremost experts in philosophy of technology and ethics of scientific knowledge! The program for the event is as follows:
