How to Navigate Pure

THE VBN-TEAM RECOMMENDS

For you to be as findable and visible as possible when you and your work is searched for, it is necessary, to work with your AAU profile. Hubs and relations are key to understand Pure.

To take advantage of the possibilities provided, you can follow a few steps mentioned below. Keep in mind that your department and university also benefit from strong researcher profiles.

1. Register your Publications in Pure, which is the administrative entry to the AAU research portal: <https://vbn.aau.dk>. You login to Pure here: <https://vbn.aau.dk/admin>.
2. Keep an eye on your Press/Media in Pure. Much of the Danish press is added automatically by the monitor of Danish media Infomedia.
3. Choose a level for registration of Activities. That is decide on periodicity and activity types that you want to register.
4. Use Projects as hubs for your work. Projects can be everything from a research idea to a project with grants and economy of its own. Impacts are also hubs, but they are intended or actual impacts on research or the wider society.
5. Use Publications, Press/Media, Activities, Grants and other content types as background and evidence for your projects and impacts. You do that by relating your content to the Project and Impact registrations.
