Your Online Footprint

HST AND THE VBN-TEAM RECOMMEND

For you to be as strong as possible when you are evaluated for funding and career, it is necessary, that you keep track of your publications. To harvest "low hanging fruits" and avoid duplicates you can follow a few steps mentioned below.

Keep in mind that your department and university also benefit from strong researcher profiles.

1. The VBN-team register your publications in Pure. This is an agreement between HST and the VBN-team.
2. The ORCID iD is a unique identifier for you as a researcher. Create an ORCID iD and set up export in Pure of publications from Pure to ORCID - this is mandatory for HST VIP. Use your ORCID whenever you publish, apply for funding and in other situations where identification of your work is needed.
3. Keep an eye on your profiles in the citation databases Scopus and Web of Science. Clean up your profiles if necessary. This is highly recommended for HST VIP.
4. If you are not well covered in Scopus and Web of Science you may use Google Scholar as citation counter. Clean up if necessary. This is mandatory for HST VIP.
5. If you are on the Clarivate Highly Cited list (<https://hcr.clarivate.com/>), you may benefit from having a Researcher ID. This is optional for HST VIP.
