About FLOW

Aalborg University has selected migration as a strategic research area. The university funds the project “Global flows of migrations and their impact on North European welfare states (FLOW)”, 2018 – 2020, with 1.2 million euros.

The FLOW research team is an interdisciplinary group of political scientists, sociologists, geographers, historians and education scientists, coordinated by Professor Christian Albrekt Larsen. The FLOW project analyses migrant flows into Northern Europe, with a special emphasis on climate changes, patterns of socioeconomic and sociocultural integration and best practice within education and labour market policy.

FLOW steering committee

Professor Christian Albrekt Larsen (albrekt@dps.aau.dk), Professor Mette Buchardt (mb@learning.aau.dk), Professor MSO Thomas Bredgaard (thomas@dps.aau.dk), Professor Henning Hansen (hsh@plan.aau.dk), Associate Professor Carsten Kessler (carsten@plan.aau.dk), Associate Professor Trine Lund Thomsen (tlt@cgs.aau.dk), Associate Professor Martin Bak Jørgensen (martinjo@cgs.aau.dk).
