

PhD defense

by

Bonn Juego

Department of Political Science

THE DEFENCE TAKES PLACE:

Monday 3 June 2013, at 10:00 AM
Room 31, Address Fibigerstræde 1

TITLE OF THE THESIS:

“CAPITALIST DEVELOPMENT IN CONTEMPORARY SOUTHEAST ASIA. NEOLIBERAL REPRODUCTION, ELITE INTERESTS, AND AUTHORITARIAN LIBERALISM IN THE PHILIPPINES AND MALAYSIA”

SUBJECT OF THE LECTURE:

Can a democratic state form coexist with a non-democratic economic essence of capital accumulation and increasing polarization in the division of the economic surplus?

MEMBERS OF THE ASSESSMENT COMMITTEE:

Jacques Hersh, Professor Emeritus in Development and International Relations (chairman)

Jane Parpart, Professor at University of Massachusetts, Department of Conflict Resolution, Human Security, and Global Governance

Barry Gills, Professor at Newcastle University, School of Geography, Politics and Sociology

A small refreshment will be served after the public defence