Tanker om undervisningsformen på Aalborg Universitet, der har et stort indhold af gruppeorganiseret projektarbejde og problembaseret læring (PBL).

I am experienced in teaching and supervising students with cross-cultural backgrounds and different academic backgrounds. I try to use different methods to motivate students and facilitate the learning process, including: in class and online lectures, group discussion and peer review, seminars, workshops with guest lecturers, interactive games and simulations, case studies, company visit and dialogue with business experts, etc.

Following the Problem-based learning principle, I believe students can take the initiative to learn and generate new knowledge, and my role can be described as facilitator. During the past years, I do also benefit from continuous dialogue and inspirations from the students.
