

Work experience - research and teaching

2016 (Nov.) - present

Associate professor at the Centre for Applied Philosophy, Department of Learning and Philosophy, Aalborg University

2013 (Feb.) - 2016 (Oct.)

Assistant professor at the Centre for Applied Philosophy, Department of Learning and Philosophy, Aalborg University

2011 (Jan.) - 2012 (Dec.):

Postdoc. at the Centre for Bioethics and Nanoethics, Aarhus University
Main research areas: bioethics, animal ethics, health care ethics, environmental ethics

2007 (Sep.) - 2010 (Dec.):

PhD-fellow, Centre for Bioethics and Nanoethics, Aarhus University, Denmark
Dissertation title: The Question of the Farm Animal: Welfare, ethics and public policy in modern animal agriculture

2009:

Visiting Scholar (six months) at the Department of Philosophy, Colorado State University, USA
Host and advisor: Distinguished Professor Bernard E. Rollin

2002 - 2007:

Associate teacher and project manager (both full time and part time), VIA University College, Denmark
Courses: Ethics, theory of science, health psychology, communication and group dynamics

Work experience - other

2004 - present:

Tour guide in Greenland and Arctic Canada (season work/part time) - freelance work with EYOS Expeditions, Lindblad Expeditions/National Geographic and Arctic Adventure

1995-2007:

Different full time and part time jobs:
i.a. construction worker, kindergarten assistant, aquarium guide and marine educator

1994 - 1995:

The Royal Guards, infantry regiment: Rifleman, radio operator, adjutant

Education

Degrees

2010 PhD in bioethics at the Centre for Bioethics and Nanoethics, Aarhus University

2006 MA in philosophy at the Department of Philosophy, Aarhus University

1993 High School diploma (linguistic) at Horsens Amtsgymnasium

Courses and additional education

2002:

'Communication in organisations' at the Department of Information and Media Science, Aarhus University

2000 – 2005:

Danish Handball Federation - elite coach education (modules: physical training • pedagogy, planning and goal tender coaching • team management and psychology)

1993 – 1994:

Liberal studies in ethics, culture and literature at Indiana University of Pennsylvania, USA